

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT DIGEST FOR ESB 448

Citations Affected: IC 6-1.1-10-44.

Synopsis: Property taxes. Provides that enterprise information technology equipment purchased after June 30, 2009, by an eligible business is exempt from personal property taxation for a period agreed to by a designating body (a county council or municipal fiscal body). Provides that before January 1, 2013, a designating body may adopt a resolution providing the exemption to a particular business. Requires that the designating body and the eligible business enter into an agreement concerning the property tax exemption. Provides that the agreement must specify the duration of the property tax exemption and may specify that a transferee is entitled to the exemption on the same terms as the transferor. Specifies that the exemption continues for the period specified in the agreement, notwithstanding the January 1, 2013, deadline to adopt a resolution granting an exemption. Defines enterprise information technology equipment as: (1) hardware supporting computing, networking, or data storage function, including servers and routers; (2) networking systems having an industry designation as equipment within the "enterprise" or "data center" class of networking systems that support the computing, networking, or data storage functions; and (3) generators and other equipment used to ensure an uninterrupted power supply to such hardware and networking systems. Provides that enterprise information technology equipment does not include computer hardware designed for single user, workstation, or departmental level use. Defines an eligible business as an entity that meets the following requirements: (1) the entity is engaged in a business that operates one or more facilities dedicated to computing, networking, or data storage activities; (2) the entity is located in a facility or data center in Indiana; (3) the entity invests in the aggregate at least $10,000,000 in personal property and real property in Indiana after June 30, 2009; and (4) the average employee wage of the entity is at least 125% of the county average wage for each county in which the entity conducts business operations. (This conference committee report does the following: (1) removes everything but the exemption for enterprise information technology equipment as that provision was amended by Rep. Avery's House Motion; and (2) amends the exemption provision to clarify the meaning of "designating body".)

Effective: July 1, 2009.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE REPORT

MR. SPEAKER:

Your Conference Committee appointed to confer with a like committee from the Senate upon Engrossed House Amendments to Engrossed Senate Bill No. 448 respectfully reports that said two committees have conferred and agreed as follows to wit:

that the Senate recede from its dissent from all House amendments and that the Senate now concur in all House amendments to the bill and that the bill be further amended as follows:

- 1 Delete everything after the enacting clause and insert the following:
- 2 SECTION 1. IC 6-1.1-10-44 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE
- 3 AS A NEW SECTION TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY
- 4 1, 2009]: Sec. 44. (a) As used in this section, "designating body"
- 5 means the fiscal body of:
- 6 (1) a county that does not contain a consolidated city; or
- 7 (2) a municipality.
- 8 (b) As used in this section, "eligible business" means an entity
- 9 that meets the following requirements:
- 10 (1) The entity is engaged in a business that operates one (1) or
- 11 more facilities dedicated to computing, networking, or data
- 12 storage activities.
- 13 (2) The entity is located in a facility or data center in Indiana.
- 14 (3) The entity invests in the aggregate at least ten million
- 15 dollars ($10,000,000) in real and personal property in Indiana
- 16 after June 30, 2009.
- 17 (4) The average employee wage of the entity is at least one
- 18 hundred twenty-five percent (125%) of the county average
- 19 wage for each county in which the entity conducts business
- 20 operations.
- 21 (c) As used in this section, "enterprise information technology
- 22 equipment" means the following:

(1) Hardware supporting computing, networking, or data storage function, including servers and routers.

(2) Networking systems having an industry designation as equipment within the "enterprise" or "data center" class of networking systems that support the computing, networking, or data storage functions.

(3) Generators and other equipment used to ensure an uninterrupted power supply to equipment described in subdivision (1) or (2).

The term does not include computer hardware designed for single user, workstation, or departmental level use.

(d) As used in this section, "fiscal body" has the meaning set forth in IC 36-1-2-6.

(e) As used in this section, "municipality" has the meaning set forth in IC 36-1-2-11.

(f) As used in this section, "qualified property" means enterprise information technology equipment purchased after June 30, 2009.

(g) Before adopting a final resolution under subsection (h) to provide a property tax exemption, a designating body must first adopt a declaratory resolution provisionally specifying that qualified property owned by a particular eligible business is exempt from property taxation. The designating body shall file a declaratory resolution adopted under this subsection with the county assessor. After a designating body adopts a declaratory resolution specifying that qualified property owned by a particular eligible business is exempt from property taxation, the designating body shall publish notice of the adoption and the substance of the declaratory resolution in accordance with IC 5-3-1 and file a copy of the notice and the declaratory resolution with each taxing unit in the county. The notice must specify a date when the designating body will receive and hear all remonstrances and objections from interested persons. The designating body shall file the notice and the declaratory resolution with the officers of the taxing units who are authorized to fix budgets, tax rates, and tax levies under IC 6-1.1-17-5 at least ten (10) days before the date for the public hearing. After the designating body considers the testimony presented at the public hearing, the designating body may adopt a second and final resolution under subsection (h). The second and final resolution under subsection (h) may modify, confirm, or rescind the declaratory resolution.

(h) Before January 1, 2013, a designating body may after following the procedures of subsection (g) adopt a final resolution providing that qualified property owned by a particular eligible business is exempt from property taxation. In the case of a county, the exemption applies only to qualified property that is located in unincorporated territory of the county. In the case of a municipality, the exemption applies only to qualified property that is located in the municipality. The property tax exemption applies to the qualified property only if the designating body and the eligible business enter into an agreement concerning the property

1     tax exemption. The agreement must specify the duration of the
2     property tax exemption. The agreement may specify that if the
3     ownership of qualified property is transferred by an eligible
4     business, the transferee is entitled to the property tax exemption on
5     the same terms as the transferor. If a designating body adopts a
6     final resolution under this subsection and enters into an agreement
7     with an eligible business, the qualified property owned by the 8     eligible business is exempt from property taxation as provided in
9     the resolution and the agreement.

10     (i) If a designating body adopts a final resolution and enters into
11     an agreement under subsection (h) to provide a property tax
12     exemption, the property tax exemption continues for the period
13     specified in the agreement, notwithstanding the January 1, 2013,
14     deadline to adopt a final resolution under subsection (h).
